TWELFTH ECONOMIC CONFERENCE MOST SUCCESSFUL

The theme of the twelfth annual Economic Conference at Rollins on January 30-31 and February 1 was "Economic Tooling for World Order."

Dr. Hamilton Holt gave the keynote address in welcoming the conference at the Annie Russell Theatre by declaring "freedom and security must be the goal of nations if there is to be international peace," and "capital and labor must raise their ethical standards or be subject to further controls."

Experts in successful labor relations invited to lead discussion included: Henry Lauterbach, Rollins graduate and president-general manager, Sta-Rite Products, Delavan, Wis.; C. J. Frantz, president, Apex Electrical Mfg. Co.; Edw. J. Mills, chief steward and AFL representative and Denzil Phillips, president local CIO No. 710, United Electrical Radio and Machine workers of America; J. Whitney MacDonald, assistant president, Rumford Chemical Works, R. I.; Nat Kushner, international representative of United Baking Powder and Allied Products, CIO; David Rust, vice-president, Bundy Tubing Co., Detroit, Mich. All agreed that fair industrial relations with labor and management sharing responsibility would avert strikes.

1947 FOUNDERS' WEEK CELEBRATED AT ROLLINS

This Founders' Week celebrated the 62nd anniversary of the founding of Rollins. The Morse Gallery opened festivities with an exhibition of contemporary American Painting. The General Charles McCormick Reeve Literary and Oratorical Competition for the Hamilton Holt Award followed. The Casa Iberia offered both an Archaeological Exhibit and special lectures. And Fred Stone played to packed houses, matinee and evening, in "Mark Twain" at the Annie Russell Theatre all week.

On Saturday, February 22nd, 200 alumni gathered for our annual meeting and Alumni Luncheon. Elections and Association business concluded at the Alumni House, George Fuller, of Mobile, Ala., deftly presided as master of ceremonies at a buffet luncheon in the Student Center. President of the Student Council Eddie Copeland and Senior Class President Shelly Marks welcomed old grads back to the campus. Then the wonderful turnout of students of the Gay Nineties era held the spotlight. Dean Wendell C. Stone brought us up to date on Rollins academically. And the Student Deans, Marian van Buren Cleveland and Arthur D. Enyart were called on and responded graciously. Dean Enyart doubled for Dr. Holt, who was unable to attend due to illness, in greeting us for the college. Alumni Trustee Bob Stephens and Olcott Deming spoke briefly. Proceeding with the witty patter of his broadcasting experience, Toastmaster Fuller introduced the newly elected officers of our Alumni Association before adjourning for the laying of the cornerstone of Corrin Hall, newest dormitory for women and gift of Mrs. Henry Alvah Strong. At 4:30 in the afternoon the Annual Alumni Memorial Vespers were held at Knowles Memorial Chapel. Then many old friends attended Dr. Henry Mowbray's Gay Nineties Tea at his home in Winter Park. Kappa Alpha Theta gave a formal dance at Dubsdread that evening which pleasantly brought to a close another memorable Alumni Day.

The "One World Issue" of the Animated Magazine presented a varied table of contents. Editor-Prexy Holt insisted on meeting his own deadline even though the day before he was confined with a serious cold. The distinguished contributors this year included: Dr. Wellington Koo, our Chinese Ambassador, former U. S. Ambassador Alexander Weddell, William O. Douglas, associate justice of the U. S. Supreme Court, W. T. Holliday, president of Standard Oil of Ohio, Eldridge Haynes, publisher of MODERN BUSINESS, Jas. B. Carey, CIO Secretary-Treasurer, historian Dr. Kathryn Abbey Hanna, Dr. Laurence Duggan, Institute of International Education director, Chandram Prem Dass, educator-missionary of India, Carola Bell Williams, impersonator, Louis Lenski, Newberry medal winner for children's literature, Joe Tinker, of baseball's Hall of Fame, H. M. Sherman, author of the play "Mark Twain", Fred Stone and his daughter, Paula, of the American stage and screen. The 7,000 "subscribers" contributed substantially to the Rollins Victory Expansion Program which must be completed by June 4th to qualify for the half million dollar Library granted on that condition by the Davila Mills Foundation. All principal buildings on campus held Open House when the last page of the magazine was read.

The next morning trustees, faculty, upper division students and honored guests marched in full academic dress to Convocation in Knowles Memorial Chapel. Ambassador Koo gave the address on "The People's Stake in Peace". Then fellow alumni can share the pride of all those present when Virginia Roush d'Albert Lake was given the Rollins Decoration of Honor for her high courage and faith throughout the brutalities of Nazi imprisonment. Decorated by four governments for her share in the rescue of Allied airmen shot down over Occupied France in World War II, she was apprehended by the Gestapo while convoying one of the groups to safety. Doctor of Humanities degrees were then conferred on: Col. Chas. Trexler, Dr. Kathryn Abbey Hanna, Alexander Weddell, William Foster and Dr. Koo. Doctor of Laws degrees were bestowed on:

MARCH, 1947

The Rollins Alumni Record, March, 1947. Published Quarterly by Rollins College in March, June, September and December. Office of publication: Alumni House, Winter Park, Florida. Entered as second-class matter June 28, 1938, at the post office at Winter Park, Florida, under the Act of August 24, 1912.

Laurence Duggan, Jas. B. Carey, Wallace T. Holliday and William O. Douglas. Madame Louise Homer was awarded the Algernon Sidney Sullivan Medallion.

The annual Bach Festival followed Founders' Week once again enriched with a full complement of men's voices in the choir.

In Memoriam

E. L. Powe, Rollins Academy student the first year it opened, died late in December, 1946. He moved to DeLand, Fla., when he was 16 and completed his education at Stetson University where he received his law degree in 1904. Judge Powe held public office many times and was a retired postmaster of DeLand.

Major Milton R. Beekman was fatally injured January 11, 1947, on the island of Honshu, Japan. After almost 5 years service as a pilot in the U. S. Army Air Force, he was discharged a year ago to assume the post of inspector of airports for a State Aviation Commission. He re-enlisted last September and was in charge of operations for the Air Transport Command for the Pacific area, with headquarters in Tokyo. Major Beekman was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross in Australia in 1942 and a Bronze Oak Leaf Cluster in 1943 "for valor and extraordinary achievement" in the southwest Pacific theatre. He attended Rollins 1934-36.

Professor E. R. Crowe, of the Rollins faculty, died unexpectedly on January 28, 1947. A graduate of Yale University in 1903, he was former president and owner of the E. R. Crowe publishing company. Professor Crowe came to Winter Park in 1944 and returned to teach at Rollins each winter term since then. A brief service was held for him in the Frances Chapel of the Knowles Memorial Chapel at Rollins on January 30th.

Former teacher of physical education at Rollins, Mrs. Grace L. Hill died February 23, 1947, at her home in Swarthmore, Pa. One of America's best known writers, she was the author of more than 100 novels upon her death at 81 years of age.

ROLLINS ECONOMIC CONFERENCE

Dr. Lewis L. Lorwin, U. S. Dept. of Commerce staff economist opened the international phase of the program by speaking on Soviet-American Trade Relations. He was followed by Redvers Opie, former economic advisor to the British Embassy, Washington, D. C., Dr. Rollin S. Atwood on Latin American economy; and Ansgar Rosenborg, Swedish economic advisor to the assistant secretary-general, UNO. International economic cooperation of the highest order was advocated to free the channels of world trade.

Over 1,500 attended the discussions by these representatives of labor, management, and international economists. To Dr. Wm. Melcher, professor of business administration on the Rollins faculty, goes credit for directing this most successful Economic Conference at Rollins to date.

ALUMNI REORGANIZE AND HOLD ANNUAL ELECTIONS

Under our new constitution, adopted January 15, a mail ballot was conducted and by the largest vote cast in our association history the following councilmen were elected: Judge Donald A. Cheney, 116 Marks St., Orlando, Fla.; Raymond W. Greene, 242 Chase Ave., Winter Park, Fla.; Webber B. Haines, Altamonte Springs, Fla.; Robert M. Hayes, Jr., 2603 N. Orange Ave., Orlando, Fla.; Jean Wagner Shannon, 173 Stovin Ave., Winter Park, Fla.; Marita Stueve Stone, 815 Bonita Dr., Winter Park, Fla.; Donald C. Vincent, 431 Chase Ave., Winter Park, Fla.; Geo. E. Fuller, Jr., Old Spanish Fort Tourist Village, Box 398, Mobile, Ala.; Lottie Turner Cook, 4227 S. Four Mile Run Dr., Arlington, Va.; Cricket Manwaring Huber, 601 Grove Ave., Noble, Jenkinton, Pa.; John E. Giantonio, Sparkling Springs Farm, King Rd., Malvern, Pa.; Nancy Jane Cushman, 130 W. 57th St., N. Y. 19, N. Y.; Dudley V. Darling, 133 Woodlawn Dr., Pleasantville, N. Y.; Wendell A. Davis, 73 Fenno St., Wallaston, Mass.; John E. Clark, 1010 Laurel Ave., Bridgeport, Conn.; Geo. M. Waddell, The Waddell Co., Inc., Greenfield O.; T. W. Miller, Jr., Ashland Rubber Co., Ashland, O.; Henry S. Lauterbach, Walworth Ave., Delavan, Wis.; John H. Makemson, 726 John St., Rockford, Ill.; John G. Lonsdale, Jr., Lonsdale, Ark.; Holly Edwards Lewis, 337 N. State St., Abbeville, La.; Richard B. Washington, Wanblee, S. Dakota; Eleanor Wright Munger, 1946 Swatzel Rd., Kans. City 3, Kans.; E. Gordon Jones, 111½ N. Doheny Dr., Los Angeles, Calif.; Dodo Bundy Cheney, 36 Uplifters Club, Santa Monica, Calif.

At our annual meeting on February 22, the Council elected to office in the Alumni Association: Robert M. Hayes, president. T. W. Miller, vice-president. Frederic H. Ward, treasurer; and Aurora McKay, executive secretary.

The Council then named for their Executive Committee: Donald Cheney, Ray Greene, Webber Haines, Jean Wagner Shannon and Marita Stueve Stone. And this committee chose Ray Greene for their chairman.

With over 200 members present, dues and a subscription to the ALUMNI RECORD were out voted in favor of continuance of the Alumni Fund with each member contributing according to their ability. And a motion was passed delegating the Council to work out means of raising the percentage of contributors with the ultimate goal of making the association self-supporting. Then it was moved that councilmen devise plans by next year's elections of conducting the mail ballot on councilmen enough in advance to permit those elected to attend the annual meeting. And finally our home game with Stetson was chosen for Homecoming Day next fall, the date to be announced as soon as the game is scheduled.

Robert W. Stephens, '31, chairman of the Trustee Finance Committee, was renominated by the mail ballot carried in the December RECORD for Alumni Trustee on the college board. Rollins Trustees not only confirmed our nominee but named him to serve on their Development Committee with Col. L. Corrin Strong (HON. '46), chairman, Reginald Clough '36, Thomas P. Johnson '34, Eldridge Haynes and Laurence Duggan (HON. '47). Other trustees, nominated by the alumni and now serving are: Thomas P. Johnson '34 and Douglass W. Potter '25.

Our Alumni Association is strengthened under the new constitution by making wider participation possible through a mail ballot and representation through district councilmen in policy forming. Experience will dictate the writing of the successful measures into amendments and by-laws. For this reason every attempt was made to keep the constitution broad with the intention of putting specific methods in the by-laws which can be more readily changed to meet changing conditions.

CONSTITUTION of the ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OF ROLLINS COLLEGE

Winter Park, Florida
Adopted January 15, 1947

Article I. Name—Section I. This Organization shall be known as the Alumni Association of Rollins College.

Article VI. Meetings—Section I. The annual meeting of this Association shall be held on Alumni Day of Founders' Week in Winter Park, Florida. Special meetings may be called by order of the President of the Alumni Association or upon the written request of at least twenty-five (25) members of the Association.

Section II. Fifteen (15) members shall constitute a quorum.

Article VII. Alumni Trustees—Section I. Subject to the regulations of the Trustees of Rollins College, the Executive Secretary shall conduct by mail a ballot for the nomination of alumni trustees of Rollins College to serve not more than two (2) consecutive terms.

Article VIII. By-Laws—Section I. By-laws consistent herewith shall be adopted by the Council to establish and govern procedures for the conduct of the affairs of the Association. The proposed by-laws and all amendments thereto shall be published in the Alumni Record at least one month before final adoption.

Article IX. Amendment—Section I. This Constitution may be repealed, revised or amended by two-thirds of the members voting, such vote to be cast not less than one month after the proposed amendment has been published in the Alumni Record.

Around The Horseshoe

by BOB WILLIAMS '49

Christmas day indigestion and New Year's headaches over, Rollins students returned to the grind of classes for the second term of the '46-'47 school year. The first question asked by those unable to attend the New Year's day football game between our own Tars and the Blue Hens of Delaware was, "What happened to Jack McDowell's boys?" Handed a 21 to 7 defeat in Tampa's first Cigar Bowl game, the Rollins men not only played a team out of their class but the aerial attack that Coach Jack was counting on backfired, with interceptions by the Delaware backs setting up two of the Blue Hen touchdowns.

First Winter term highlight for the seniors was the election of 12 of the graduating class to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges." Who's Who, based on leadership, character and achievement, listed the following students: Midge Estes, Shelly Marks, Alan Phillips, Ollie Barker, Reedy Talton, Ted Mischuck, Ainslie Embry, Janet Haas, Betty Lee Kenagy, Eileen Lawless, Anita Rodenbaeck and Betty Stein.

Intramurals really got under way with the beginning of the Winter term. The "X" Club, after making a clean sweep of football and golf, also ran over all opposition to come up with the basketball trophy. Tennis was also a run-away affair with the KA's winning easily. The Theta's kept up the pace they set last year to win the basketball trophy for the girls and at present are well on their way to the Tennis Championship, with Shirley Fry and Betty Rosenquest being the cream of the entrants.

The revival of "The Late Christopher Bean" at the Annie Russell Theatre was received with mixed emotions.

The General Charles McCormick Reeve Essay contest spurred plenty of student effort. With the greatest number of essays ever submitted, the Judges had a difficult time choosing the winners. After careful consideration Douglas Bills, Wesley Davis, Henry E. Jacobs, Sheldon Marks, Dan Paonessa and Roger Schoening were awarded the prize money. The winners then competed in the Hamilton Holt speaking contest. Wesley Davis won this further award for the best delivery of a winning essay.

Sorority rushing got another black eye this year when rumors started to fly concerning dirty rushing on the part of some of the girls' groups. All in all 51 girls were pledged to the 7 national sororities on campus. At the same time the men were having an open rush season free of any such charges.

Rushing finally quieted down on campus and the Economic Department got ready to hold their yearly Economic Conference. At the same time Mr. Donald S. Allen of the Dramatic Department, saw his second production of the year open in the Fred Stone Experimental Theatre. Galsworthy's play, "The Pigeon," added to the already long list of experienced actors available at Rollins.

The Lambda Chi Alpha Fraternity, looking for a new slant on the College dance situation, staged a highly successful costume ball. They requested that formal costumes be worn, if possible, but provided "appropriate" costumes at the door for those appearing in informal attire.

ALUMNI CLUB NEWS TAMPA

Tampa alumni went all out to show Rollinsites a good time after the first Cigar Bowl game there on New Year's day. Mr. Karl Cuesta (Nonita's father) and Bill Reynolds (Frannie Hyer's husband) were hosts to the Tar Team, coaching staff and a full complement of Rollins students for cocktails and a buffet supper in the Caribbean Room of the Tampa Terrace Hotel. Tampa alumni who participated in the festivities were: Nonita and her father, Mr. Karl Cuesta, Bill and Frannie (Hyer) Reynolds, Ruth Smith Yadley (Mrs. Jean), Don McIntosh, Gregg Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland McInnis, Harry and Carolyn Waller, John M. and Margaret (Parsons) Harris, Harry and Betty (Dickinson) Kelly, Jim and Edna (Wells) Wishart and Ed and Sue (Terry) Boswell. Out-of-town alumni included: Buck and Nancy (Locke) Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hayes, Judge Don Cheney, Barbara Cheney, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wharton of Orlando, Fla.; Mrs. Rachel (Harris) Reed, Don and Trixie (Larsen) Vincent and Guy Colado of Winter Park, Fla.; Nancy Hartz Wodlinger (Mrs. Mark) of Ocala, Fla.; Ollie Barker, Montverde, Fla.; Bec Caldwell, Lake Wales, Fla.; Floyd Jaggears, Inverness, Fla.; Bill and Marion (Russ) Justice, Gastonia, N. C.; Alden and Rita (Costello) Manchester, Takoma Park, Md.; Mel and Smokey (Sholley) Clanton, Greensboro, N. C.; and John Bistline, Ithaca, N. Y.

The class of 1950, otherwise known as this year's freshmen, put on a memorable show this term. Using The Bowery as their theme, they packed the Student Center. Colorful stage props complete with checkered tablecloths, candles, singing waiters and bouncer created atmosphere for this year's parade of talent. A realistic chorus, old fashioned melodrama, humorous and gifted piano, voice and dance numbers built up to the most hilarious hit of the evening. Three husky boys 'stole the show' when they came on in blonde wigs and coy blue dresses to sing and dance "I'm Just a Girl Who Can't Say No!"

The arrows flew at the archery court this term, when the Robin Hoods of the Girls' Independent team showed the rest of the supposedly William Tells how it was done by easily coming out with the most points. The second slot was won by the Chi Omega's followed closely by the Pi Phi's.

Actor Fred Stone, of Hollywood and Broadway fame, graced the boards of the Annie Russell Theatre again this winter. This time, to take the lead in the Premiere Production of the play "Mark Twain." Many of you alumni who were fortunate enough to come back to good old Rolly Colly no doubt saw his rollicking performance. Of the 17 talented students privileged to appear with Mr. Stone this year, Reedy Talton was a stand-out with his characterization of General Grant.

Alumni Day and Founders' Week saw the campus crawling with old grads, who no doubt found the students of today just as befuddled as ever. Many hailed the increased enrollment and calibre of the undergraduates, however, and were impressed by Senior Class president, Shelly Marks, and his well chosen words at the Alumni Luncheon.

Men's volleyball Intramurals started out with a bang with the KA's beating the "X" Club. But later in the season the KA's themselves were beaten by the Delta Chi's, necessitating a playoff. The "X" Club, KA's, and Delta Chi's, played a round robin and as a result, the Clubbers added another trophy to their shelf. At the same time the Girls' Varsity Basketball Team was ending up a disastrous season by dropping their last game to the Jacksonville Waves. Playing only 3 games this year the girls' team lost all of them, 2 to the Waves and the other one to Southern College.

Rollins students distinguished themselves in another field this term. At the March Southeastern College Forensic Meet in N. C. Joe Friedman took two firsts in Radio Address and Situational Oratory and Ann Craver won second prize in Poetry Reading.

I hope this brief but more or less concise account helps recall your days at Rollins.

CORRECTION: Ex-Marine Gordon Tully wishes us to declare his single blessedness. The man is right. But the guest list from our N. Y. Club's Dinner at Rupperts reported in our last issue, inadvertently included "Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tully." Back from service to finish work on his degree, Gordon is one of our many returned veterans at Rollins.

TRUSTEES RAISE TUITION TO MEET INCREASED COSTS

Because of the increase in wages, salaries, foodstuffs and other commodities during the past two years, Rollins finds it necessary to increase general fees, effective next fall. The new rates, which are at the pre-war scale, will apply to all students, civilians and veterans. However, the college has promised that no student now in college will be compelled to leave because of the higher fees.

Under the new schedule the fee for boarding students was raised $85 to $1,350; for Orange County day students from $375 to $750. The rate for non resident day students was lowered $20 to $750.

Boarding students, unable to meet the greater cost of their education, will be given special consideration for scholarship, loan or work aid, to pay the increase.

As in the past, because of the substantial financial support given Rollins by the local community, civilian Orange County day students will be given tuition-remission scholarships of $300, thus reducing their general fee to $450, which is an increase of $75 over the rate paid this year.

Veteran boarding and day students, coming under Public Law No. 346 will be required to sign a charge against their eligibility to allow payment by the government of $750 for the general fee. Disabled veterans coming under Public Law 16 will not be affected by the increase.

For veterans the charge for board and room will be $600 contrasted to $385. Those who can do so are expected to pay the increase from their private funds, but those who cannot do this will be given scholarships covering all or part of the $215 increase, depending on need.

A student-faculty committee, the academic standing and financial aid committee, and administrative officers of the college are now cooperating to ensure that all problems caused by the increase of fees will be solved.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

By vote of the Rollins Faculty and the 1946-47 Senior Class, precedent within all recent years will be broken and Graduation Exercises held at 7:30 in the evening on June 2nd in Knowles Memorial Chapel. Baccalaureate Services will take place at 10:30 A. M. in The Chapel on June 1st. And Class Day will be observed on May 30th, the Friday preceding.

Alumni are especially invited to attend these exercises for the largest Graduating Class in the history of Rollins. Individual notice of plans for the traditional Alumni-Senior Breakfast on the morning of Graduation Day will be mailed to you.

CLASS NOTES

Gay Nineties

In response to the Christmas greeting cards sent out by your secretary Allie Mizell King (Mrs. W. C.) wrote: "Thanks for the beautiful post card of Rollins College for it brings back many happy memories. I entered college the first day Rollins opened." She is living at 609 S.E. 1st Ave., Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and we hope she will revisit the campus. Three of her sisters later attended Rollins.

Dr. Frederick L. Lewton has retired after 35 years with the Smithsonian Institute. This winter he and Mrs. Lewton visited his sister, Jessamine Lewton Hartman (Mrs. J. M.) in St. Petersburg, Fla., before coming to Winter Park for all Founders' Week activities. They are returning to their home in Washington, D. C., but plan to buy a home eventually near Rollins.

Our annual Gay Nineties tea was especially gay this year for so many old friends were there. Among those present were: Mrs. 'Birdie' Abbott Roxby, Dr. Fred and Ann (Bennett) Ensminger, Stella Waterhouse, Grace V. Wakelin, Elizabeth Rand, Ira J. Johnston, Mr. N. P. and Gertrude (Southgate) Yowell, Jacob Gazan, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Lewton, Maud Neff Whitman, (Mrs. A. B.), Marian Curtis Robinson (Mrs. B. M.), Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Shepherd (Gertrude Funkhouser), Judge and Mrs. Frank L. Miller, Mrs. Annie (Guffin) Ward, and Clara Layton Ward (Mrs. C. Fred). Other guests were: Dean Wendell C. and Marita (Stueve) Stone, Mrs. Geo. E. Warren, Madeleine Appleby, and Aurora McKay. Joan Sherick and Betty Lee Kenagy, Rollins seniors, assisted your host at the tea table.

By popular acclaim it was decided that each of us mail special greetings to Mrs. Caroline Hills Abbott, who will celebrate her 100th birthday at Huckleberry Mountain, Hendersonville, N. C., on July 9th, 1947.

Class of 1904

Secretary: Mrs. L. C. Algee (Mary Hardaway), 1017 Cumberland Rd., N.E., Atlanta, Ga.

One recent morning's mail brought us a thoroughly interesting brochure on The Perry-Mansfield Camps and Theatre Work Shop, which are affiliated with the University of Wyoming. The co-director is none other than Portia Mansfield, who attended the former Rollins Academy 1900-03. In 1910 she earned her A.B. degree at Smith and, in 1933, her M.A. degree at N. Y. University. Anyone interested in a summer high in the Rockies should write her at 216 E. 70th St., N. Y. City 21, or (after May 25th) at Steamboat Springs, Colo.

Class of 1906

Secretary: Mrs. Henry Nickel, Silver Lake, Sanford, Fla.

A good Rollins reunion means a family reunion for Fanny Robinson Cheney. This year was no exception with her mother (Mrs. B. M. Robinson, '90A), her husband (Judge Don Cheney, '07A) and her daughter (Barbara, '44) at the Alumni Luncheon. And the gathering will grow, for her daughter Virginia is a Rollins freshman now!

Class of 1907

Secretary: Berkeley Blackman, 2669 Boulevard Dr., S.E., Atlanta, Ga.

Don Cheney was an ambassador of good will for our class throughout Founders' Week this year. Aside from his official duties with the college, he served as Program Chairman for the annual Alumni Luncheon, was popularly elected to the new representative Alumni Council and topped his other honors and responsibilities by being chosen on the Executive Committee for the Council.

Class of 1911

Secretary: Mary L. Branham, 126 Lucerne Circle, Orlando, Fla.

Henry Banks was in Florida this winter and paid Rollins a visit on February 3rd. He has been farming successfully in Clarksdale, Ark., for many years and says, "Some day I hope to build in Florida and come down after the third frost each year and not go back until time to plant cotton!"

Class of 1917

Secretary: Randolph Lake, Forest Lake, Minn.

Melvin Wagner saw wonderful improvement in Rollins when he returned after twenty some years to make application to enroll his son, Larry. Since he is now with the Hadlock Fruit Co. in Mt. Dora, we hope to have him on campus often. Father and son were welcome additions at our Annual Alumni Luncheon this year. Fred Hanna, with all his Founders' Week responsibilities, took time to serve on the Alumni Day Welcoming Committee.

Class of 1918

Secretary: Anne C. Stone, Winter Park, Fla.

Our sympathy goes to Florence Keezel, whose mother died early in February.

Sadie Sawyer Pellerin visited the campus while spending the Christmas holidays with friends in Orlando. She also attended many of the activities of Founders' Week.

Vivian Barbour Howison (Mrs. Wm. H.) is now a resident of Winter Park, having purchased an attractive home in the vicinity of Rollins.

Antoinette Barbour Houghton (Mrs. Robert) has three sons about whom there is interesting news. The oldest, Olin Barker, who served during the war as a gunner in Italy and was imprisoned in a German camp, is now a student at Bowdoin College. Robert Bruce is serving in Japan and the youngest, Geoffry, is studying at Lawrenceville Academy in Princeton.

Class of 1920

Secretary: T. DeWitt Taylor, c/o High School, Pierson, Fla.

Geraldine Barbour Gall (Mrs. Kenneth E.) has just returned to her home in Rochester, N. Y., after spending 5 weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Barbour in Winter Park.

Our class was represented by Earl Shannon and Don Vincent at the Alumni Day activities.

Class of 1922

Secretary: Mrs. Alvord Stone (Ruth Waldron), 5402 Suwanee, Tampa 4, Fla.

Evelyn Haynes writes from N. Y. that she is busy booking artists and lecturers for various groups in the U. S. and having a lot of fun doing it. Of course, in the summer she is busy at her Huckleberry Colony and Workshop Camp near Hendersonville, N. C. Dr. E. O. Grover and his sister, Miss Eulalie Osgood Grover, have bought up there and are consultants in publishing and juvenile fiction writing at "Huck" in the summer.

Amelia Kendall is keeping up her end of social activities in DeLand, Fla., by being the D.A.R. regent there.

Madeleine Appleby was indispensable getting the Alumni House ready for Open House following the Animated Magazine. She arrived early with flowers and vacuum cleaner.

Class of 1923

Secretary: Ray Greene, 252 Chase Ave.,

Mrs. C. W. Lawrence, mother of Lt. Col. Lawrence, and his son, C. W. Lawrence, III. For "Chick's" whereabouts see the '27 Class Notes.

Winter Park, Fla.

George Trowbridge writes that he is sorry not to be able to get away from his work in Pensacola, Fla., to visit Rollins.

Now that Frances James and Helen Waterhouse ('24) have built a home in Winter Park, it was grand having them on campus for all the Founders' Week activities.

Class of 1924

Secretary: Dr. Walter Johnston, 1401 Grove Terrace, Winter Park, Fla.

The sympathy of her classmates, students, and friends is extended to Bernice Shor on the loss of her mother in February. Bernice holds B.S. and M.S. degrees and has been on the Rollins faculty since 1926.

A nice letter from Ruth Scudder, Farmington, Conn., Librarian of what is said to be the finest "Village Library", tells of most interesting things connected with her work chief of which at the moment was preparation for an open house on March 1, the nature of which was historical, contrasting the library of 1795 with the library of 1947. It included an exhibit of early industries illustrated by old account books in the library collection. (Dr. Hanna's influence even in Conn.) Thank you, Ruth, for bringing us up to date on your activities.

Six Sutliff has returned to Florida to be in the Tampa office of the Tri-State Culvert & Manufacturing Company. Welcome home, Six!

Your Class Secretary flew down to Winter Park as this went to press for a very short business trip and a week-end with his family. Walter has been in Cincinnati most of this winter.

Class of 1925

Secretary: Rebecca Caldwell, Lake Wales, Fla.

Doris Frank Motz (Mrs. C. P.) visited Rollins and the Alumni House just before Founders' Week with her husband and little daughter, Carol Adele. They were on a motor tour from West Palm Beach to Winter Park to St. Petersburg in Florida; then to Mobile, Ala., New Orleans, La., and Oklahoma City before returning home to Akron, Ohio. Their new address is 1972 White Pond Drive.

Pixie Powers Rochelle (Mrs. Ogden J.) will be an interested member of our N. Y. Rollins Club. Her new address is: 536 W. 112th St., N. Y. 25, N. Y.

Winkie, Buzzie and Guy Dickson are the children of Guy and Dickie (Dickson) Colado.

Class of 1927

Secretary: Mrs. Rodman Lehman (Kay Lewis), 772 Maryland Ave., Winter Park, Fla.

Charles Spross and his family, who live in Toledo, O., spent the Christmas holidays in Florida. While here, he made application to enter his daughter Suzanne and son Charles at Rollins. Suzanne is finishing soon at Ferry Hall and (son) Charles is an outstanding golfer at Culver. And there's a younger daughter, Barbara, to carry on the Spross name at Rollins.

Chick Lawrence is in the Judge Advocate General's Service of the U. S. Army with the U. S. Representation of Allied Control Commission for Roumania in Bucharest. Mail will reach him through his mother, Mrs. C. W. Lawrence, at 15 Gramercy Park, New York 3, N. Y.

At last report Dr. Hardin Branch was in a foxhole in Bougainville and we expected to hear he had returned to his civilian practice in Pomona, California, when he left the Navy. However, while in service he was assigned to The Institute of the Pennsylvania Hospital for special training in psychiatry and liked it. So he has returned there as a Commonwealth Fund Fellow, now that he has finished his Navy career, and plans on a couple of years there and at the Pennsylvania Hospital itself with an intermingling of teaching and research. He says, "It is a completely satisfactory specialty, to my way of thinking, and my previous work in internal medicine fits into it like another peice in a jigsaw puzzle." Hardin solved his family housing problem by buying a home at 1255 Edge Hill Rd., in Darby, Pa.

Dickie Dickson Colado (Mrs. Guy) and your secretary helped put over the 1947 alumni reunion.

Ed. Note: We admit to substituting for your capable correspondent this issue. But Kay's meeting 4-hour deadlines since her son Lewis' little sister, Gail, arrived on February 1. And after seeing the sweet Object of Their Affection we didn't have the heart to vie for her time. (Congratulations Kay and Rodd on a mighty nice family circle!)

Class of 1928

Secretary: Carter Bradford, 300 Sylvan Dr., Winter Park, Fla.

Trixie Larsen Vincent (Mrs. Donald C.) and Dr. Philip and Dorothea (Forbes) Reece were on campus for the Alumni Reunion this year.

Class of 1929

Secretary: Nancy Brown, 311 N. Piedmont, St., Arlington, Va.

Ann Lupton Shook is librarian at the Ocoee High School, but lives in Orlando, where her son is attending the Memorial Jr. High. She saw Elinore Tomlinson Shirley Ann celebrated her fourth birthday on Nov. 27th. She is the daughter of Mrs. H. W. Barnum (Gertrude Ward.).

Lusk in Evanston last summer, while attending the University of Chicago.

Phil Cummings was a gracious host this summer at his comfortable home in Vermont to Dr. Frederick ('92A) and Mrs. Lewton. The Lewtons speak in glowing terms of his 2 little girls and the family's hospitality to them, when they were motoring through Woodstock.

Mary Hanson Green (Mrs. Albert A.) has 3 sons and is living in Coral Gables, Fla. Her husband is in aviation.

Ollie and Emily Whitmore ('28) Bandy visited the campus just before Christmas with their attractive children and made application for their eldest daughter, Ruth, to enter Rollins the fall of '48. Ollie's New World Portuguese Basic Course is in the hands of his publishers, the Turner E. Smith Co. of Atlanta. His co-authors in this work were Dr. Oscar Machado of Porto Alegre, Brazil, and Professor W. A. Strozier, chairman of the Emory University Language Department. Adventures in Conversational Spanish, which Ollie also co-authored is now in its second printing.

Ed Sherbondy is married and operating the Atlanta Sherwin Williams Paint Store. He was in Florida the middle of January and dropped in at the Alumni House for a welcome visit.

Jimmie Bartlett, Ann Lupton Shook, Russ Fuller and Bill Jennings were at this year's alumni reunion.

Classmates will be glad to know that Bernhard Siegel and his family survived the war. He is practising law in Germany and has a 6 year old daughter, Vera, and a 3 year old son, Wolfgang. Bernhard wrote that he had just seen the article on Rollins in an overseas edition of the Saturday Evening Post and "wished to be again on the Rollins tennis team remembering the glorious season of 1928-29 when Bob Proctor ('31) and I led an undefeated team."

Class of 1930

Secretary: Clara Adolfs, Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla.

Charmaine Berquist Clulow (Mrs. F. S.) wanted to recuperate in Florida from a recent accident while horseback riding, and take in Founders' Week at Rollins again, but had to remain in California for her rest. She and her husband plan to travel abroad this spring.

Dr. and Mrs. Bill Jennings' daughter Amy, and her playmate 'Cokey.'

Stephen, is the 6 year old son of Manly and Louise (Howes) Duckworth.

Congratulations to Ozzie and Mary Race Harris on the arrival February 24th of Elizabeth Holmden Harris. Better enroll her soon at Rollins as the waiting list now is three times the number of vacancies.

Space does not permit printing the letter received from Zoltan Bekassy, but he wants to hear from Rollins. During an English or American bombardment in September 1944 his wife and three children were all killed. Present conditions prevent his giving any details about the state of affairs in his part of Europe. Any word of cheer and friendship would be more than welcome, you can imagine. His address: 17 Szapary St., Budapest, Hungary.

It seems strange that altho the war is over Peter Berger's letter to us was censored. He is teaching in a Bremen school that has no window panes, no heat whatever, and the most primitive of conditions. Under such conditions, he writes, "signs of friendship of former co-students of my college days at Rollins mean ever so much." Dorothy Mittendorf, Cy Cockrell, Ozzie Harris, and Mrs. Bartlett have all written to him and sent material help, for which he is most grateful. We repeat his address: (23) Achim bi Bremen, Borsteler Landstr. 626.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Buddy Ebsen and his wife in the loss of their little boy who died of pneumonia only three weeks after birth.

Sarah Huey Lewis finally found an apartment in Florida where she and her two boys are living during February and March, altho unfortunately it is way down in Ft. Myers instead of around Winter Park.

Thanks, Virginia Stelle, for bringing us up to date on your activities. Your description of your work for the economist in the research department of the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, sounds intriguing. All the advantages of movies, club store, gymnasium, library and dinner dances can be had only by working for such a large organization. Let us know when you are promoted to the president's office! And may others follow your example by sending in news about themselves.

Assistant Dean Mazzie Wilson, at the University of Syracuse, spent her Christmas holidays in Florida. She and her mother drove down from Jacksonville to visit her sister in Miami and stopped by Rollins on their way back.

Winnie Nichols Morrison (Mrs. D. B.) has a fine baby boy, Bruce Lee, born on January 28th. Congratulations!

At Homecoming this fall Bob Pepper expected to get back for Alumni Day but he has just bought a new home in Ft. Myers and was too busy painting, wall-papering, floor sanding and varnishing.

Class of 1931

Secretary: Jewell May Lewter, 611 N. Orange Ave., Orlando, Fla.

Ed. Note: In the absence of class news from you this time we print excerpts from a letter from Nick Orszagh, our exchange student from Hungary in 1930-31.

Before Hungary entered the war, Nick was a schoolmaster at one of the better high schools in Budapest. In 1942 he was invited to give courses on English and American language and literature and became an assistant professor at the University of Budapest.

In his words, he: "Lived fairly comfortably. Published a number of essays and books on English and American literature. Got out a 5 volume English reader for Hungarian high schools that is still the official textbook in its field. Earned my Ph.D. in 1935 with a thesis for which I began to collect material in Dr. Pattee's classes. And until the war, kept up with Rollins through the ALUMNI RECORD."

Then the blow fell. In 1944 as the Russians reached our frontiers, all the youth and manhood of this country was mobilized. I was called up at the tender age of 37, a raw recruit. Being unmarried I locked my apartment and changed into olive drabs. Life lost all its flavor anyhow when every contact with English-speaking countries was broken off and we few people eager to maintain intellectual and friendly relations with the States and Britain and friends there were frowned upon as potential enemies of the 'New Europe'. Outside of the university it was not too safe to maintain that one was still interested, had gone to school in the States, did not believe every syllable of official daily German propaganda hand-outs or that one felt very dry in the throat when it became known that Paris fell and the Germans were preparing to invade England. The only thing to keep up the courage of those comparatively few Hungarians who were pro-allies (having become infected with the poisons of Western ideals in their impressionable youth) was the daily BBC broadcast in the late evening and occasionally a smuggled in copy of the miniature airplane edition of the Times Weekly. But the latter one had better not be kept at home. They might be found in a house-search. And before you turned on the BBC you better put on earphones.

So when I was called up I went hoping it would not last too long now. Yet it did, more than a year. With some influence I got a post as a typist in one of the numerous army bureaus and remained until the Hungarian army retreated to Bavaria and I fell into the hands of the rapidly advancing 13th Armored Division of the U. S. Third Army on May 1, 1945. As the only English speaking Hungarian PW among 35,000 corralled I was quickly picked out by the M. P. and CIC as an interpreter. I worked with them (and later with the Military Government) for 10 months in many capacities. These were my most glorious days in the last 6 years, hearing English spoken the way I had learned to like, reading American magazines and newspapers. The only drawback was that I did not hit upon a single Rollins alumnus, but did find a Lt. Richmond from N. C., a deputy Provost Marshall in Tann, who had actually been in Winter Park and attended some academic function there.

When we were repatriated from the American zone of Germany I hastened to my apartment in Budapest after 2 years. A bomb had fallen on it. It did not explode but what the bomb did not do the mob (looting as usual) did to my belongings, among them many small tangible memories and mementos of the year at Rollins. Fortunately, while still a PW with the US troops I got a pair of trousers (not GI), a sweater, 3 shirts and other necessities of clothing to cover my nakedness. These were (and still are) the mainstay of my wardrobe. There was no hope (much less funds) to rebuild my apartment, so I am still living with a more fortunate friend in the same building.

Feverishly I began giving private English lessons for anything I could get. Not so much for money for those were the worst days of the Hungarian inflation and teachers were paid even worse than ever before. One carried a knapsack and preferably taught the children of agriculturists for a few pounds of potatoes, a tiny jar of molasses, a pound of bread or 2 pounds of dry hard beans. In the evening you cooked some sort of meal and so one day was weathered. Those still unlucky ones who used to have landed estates were not infrequently regarded as public enemies because the ownership of over 160 acres was a fascist trait. All land over that was confiscated in return for a mimeographed slip. This did not surprise me for I knew the first revolution would begin with distribution of oversized feudal estates. What did surprise me was that our 800 acres were regarded as a 'feudal sized' estate.

Well, in those first few months of semistarvation I wrote frantic letters to my numerous GI friends in the States and they responded handsomely. Without the parcels they sent me of spam, Luckies, cereals, coffee, bacon, chocolate, corned beef, and sausage, I do not know how I could have survived. The luxuries (chocolate, coffee and Luckies) I bartered for more substantial edibles, for a pair of socks here and a shirt there. So I succeeded in weathering the storm, thank God.

In August of 1946 the Hungarian currency was stabilized and inflation ended. Pay began to forthcome regularly and it did have value. After careful screening by political and police authorities I was re-admitted to my job as Assistant Professor of English and American studies at a country university (Debrecen) in eastern Hungary. My present pay is 38 dollars a month. With private lessons and all sorts of intellectual hack-work I earn another 16 dollars monthly. This is enough for 2 meals a day and traveling expenses. It does not cover clothing or books. Yet I must consider myself happy compared with my colleagues who have a family to maintain.

If you or those who may care to hear of me want to help my first request is news of Rollins and what has become of my classmates. Second, books and periodicals for teaching American civilization and literature. They are frightfully expensive and at present unobtainable in Hungary. (What I should like is to send somebody connected with Rollins a list of useful books.) There is, maybe, a philanthropic alumnus in the class of 1931 who is inclined to foot the bill for 3 or 4 books.

Another suggestion: canned foodstuffs in 5-10 pound parcels, underwear or clothing for a man of 6 foot height."

Bill Rice has the heartfelt wishes of the whole Rollins family for recovery. He took flu right at Christmas time, developed pneumonia and is now suffering from a paralysis. Remembering Bill's prowess and courage in aquatic sports at Rollins, we feel sure he'll win the fight. Meantime, words of encouragement from friends should be addressed to him at the Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Fla.

Class of 1932

Secretary: Mrs. Wm. Moore (Lucille Tolson), 408 N. Wild Olive Dr., Daytona Beach, Fla.

It was good to see Marian Allen Kirk (Mrs. M. M.) again on February 18th in the Alumni House with her husband, who is still in uniform. They are visiting her folks in Eustis after spending 10 months in Lima, Peru. M/Sgt. Kirk will leave shortly for Hawaii where Marian will join him later with their 3 year old daughter, Janet Marian.

Al Valdes and his wife, Kathryn, drove over to Rollins from Winter Garden for Alumni Day. They topped off the day's festivities by seeing Fred Stone in "Mark Twain" that evening at the Annie Russell Theatre.

Phyrne Squier Russell is back in Winter Park assisting Mr. Pratt with the FLORIDA MAGAZINE OF VERSE.

We've located Lois Hancock! She owns a small variety store in Brooksville, Fla., and says, "Having the wonderful experience of being my own boss." She asks for a RECORD, and we're glad to have her back on our mailing list.

Ben Walpole, who has been in Winter Park this winter, is back in Baltimore now at his school for crippled children. The school sounds interesting and we suggest that anybody who has a little time while in Baltimore call Cockeysville 230 and let him show off his brain child.

Robert G. Cleveland, of 1868 Columbia Rd., N.W., Washington, D.C., was among the first nine Foreign Service Officers under the provisions of Public Law 488 to be appointed to the middle and upper grades of the Foreign Service. He was sworn in by Selden Chapin, Director General of the Foreign Service on March 5. Bob served as a Production Specialist with the War Production Board during World War II until he was commissioned by the Navy as a Lieutenant (j.g.) in 1942. Discharged as a Commander in June 1946, Bob entered the Office of Foreign Liquidation Commissioner of the Department of State, where he has recently been serving as Executive Director. We all are proud of your achievement, Bob, and wish you the best of luck!

Virginia Roush d'Albert Lake (Mrs. Philip) and her son, Jean Patrick, just before they left Paris to visit her father in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Our class was well represented Alumni Day and at some of the Founders' activities, by Phyrne Squier Russell, Al Valdes, and Ben Walpole, Jr.

Class of 1933

Secretary: Mrs. Henry Douglas (Thelma Van Buskirk) c/o Pinellas Cigar Co., St. Petersburg, Fla.

Classmates and friends of Floyd Shor will wish to express sympathy on the death of his mother late in February.

Mrs. Peter Brescia (Kay Goss) writes that she served as a SPAR in the USCG for 36 months as a radio operator and was discharged from the service on May 28, 1946. Her present address in St. Louis is 3847 Westminster Place.

Art Todd reports he is a Forester with the U. S. Forest Service in Asheville, N. C.

Bob Currie resigned from his position in Pittsburgh and is back in Winter Park. He sang the solo beautifully for the Alumni Memorial Vesper Service this year.

In February Boyd Kyner phoned his wife, Robbie, in Winter Park from Yokohama. She and their 2 children plan to join him in Japan in May.

Waldo Plympton has been practicing law in Winter Park since last March when he returned from service with the Navy. During the war he served in both the Atlantic and Pacific as a Lt. Cmdr. in the Reserves and skipped a mine sweeper, a tanker and a salvage tug. Now besides his law practice he is teaching state and local government at Rollins and still contributing much time to civic welfare. At present he is chairman of the "Buy-a-Brick" campaign for a new Health and Welfare building in Winter Park.

Dot Shepherd Smith represented our class on Alumni Day.

Holly Edwards Lewis (Mrs. F. Pier-son) writes that she has been blessed with the return of her husband from the war. He was a lieutenant in the Marine Corps on Iwo Jima. Holly has been very busy lately as Chairman of the Organizational Committee for the League of Women Voters of Abbeville, La.

Look for a story called The Poem in the March issue of LADIES HOME JOURNAL. The author is none other than our own Twanet Evans Cummins (Mrs. Robert)!

Class of 1934

Secretary: Burleigh Drummond, P. O.

Box 4808, Atlanta 2, Georgia.

Lt. Comdr. William A. Mosteller, USN, is in the Supply Corps and is now attending school at NSD, Bayonne, N. J.

Mrs. Paul Tenney (Louise Jenkins) will accompany her husband of the State Department in D. C. to Santiago, Chile sometime in the spring.

The sympathy of her classmates and friends is extended to Olive (Dickson) Dawkins on the death of her father early in January.

Clinton Nichols is Vice-President of the Teachers' College in Farmington, Maine.

Kingsley Karnopp announced a son, Bobby, born November 26, who will soon be a playmate for sister, Ruth, 2½.

Tommy Thompson doesn't get to spend much time at home since he is handling the Cincinnati district for a Chicago manufacturer of screws. Tommy's address is: 207 Pleasant St., Oak Park, Ill.

Bob Stufflebeam is out of the Navy and is in the State Department.

Jack and Sarah Harbottle ('35) Howden took in Founders' Week at Rollins this year.

Class of 1935

Secretary: Mrs. John T. Galey (B. G. Fishback), Forsyth Rd., Charter Oak, R. F. D. No. 5, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Peggy Jenkins was married on January 7 in Richmond, Ind., to Sidney Lafoon who is with the State Department in D. C. He hopes to be sent abroad, probably S. America, in the spring.

Joseph C. Howell, Jr., is Assistant Professor of Zoology in the Department of Zoology and Entomology at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville.

J. Alan MacWatt is librarian in the Lederle Laboratories Division of the American Cyanamid Company. Mr. and Mrs. MacWatt are the proud parents of a daughter, Lamsen Redcleft, born September 10, 1946. Their address is: 35 Saddle River Rd., Pearl River, N. Y.

Since returning to the States to visit her father in St. Petersburg, Virginia Roush d'Albert-Lake has been widely invited to speak on her war experiences, and spoke inspiringly in Winter Park on the Chain of Missions. She will go to N. Y. to meet her husband Philip in April and wants to bring him back to see the wonderful changes at Rollins since their last visit here. Later they will return to France with their infant son, Jean Patrick.

Elsie Shippey Johnson who recently visited the campus with Virginia Roush d'Albert-Lake is the 1946-47 President of the Panhellenic Association in St.

Petersburg, Fla. They were both here again for Alumni Day and the Animated Magazine.

John V. Baker, Jr., is with the Piper Cub Airplane Co. in Omaha, Neb. His address is: 3528 N. 45th St.

The following excerpts are taken from a letter from Ginny Taylor which we are sure will interest you classmates very much: "In 1938 I became interested in photography . . . I was traveling with a friend of mine from home who was a Yachtswoman and interested in Star Boats. We attended 8 or 10 of the international series of the Stars from 1938 to the middle of 1940, she sailing, and I taking pictures. Among the places we went were San Diego, New York, Havana, Nassau, and finally, oh fateful moment—Kiel, Germany, in August, 1939. We saw the German Fleet sail for Kiel Harbour and finally managed to get out of Europe through Denmark and sailed from Oslo, Norway. Though I had written permission from Admiral Raeder to photograph in Germany, when war began and we had to leave, my pictures were all confiscated. They were color movies, and I have since learned that they were used as a Sports Feature attraction by the Germans. . . I did manage to return to the Bahamas in 1940, '41, and '42. In 1940 I was doing some travel photography for the Bahamas Development Board. In '41 I took some pictures of and visited Rosita Forbes, the English travel writer who at that time was colonizing an English settlement on the Island of Eleuthera. In 1942 I was designing native handcraft of the Bahamas for export. . . I took the CAA primary training course. . . Ferry piloting was what I wanted, but the CAA course gave me only 50 hours and a private license which in spite of my pleadings did not appeal to the Canadian, British, or Australian Ferry Commands. . . So when the Navy announced it would enlist the services of women, I was quite happy and entered the first class. In November of 1945 I had enough points to get out of the Navy, so was released from active duty on the 7th. A week in New York, another in Washington, six weeks at home in New Orleans, and then I was back again in these lovely little islands, the Bahamas . . . doing some terrain modeling there. In May I returned to New Orleans for just a week and then the Waterman Airlines sent me to Puerto Rico to photograph for them. From July until the first of December I became a mole. I spent practically every minute in the darkroom working on the Waterman pictures. I finished them and came up for air at Christmas and am now scanning the horizon for another assignment. Also, I am still toying with the thought of going to school again to study photography and take a bit of journalism." Ginny is now living at: 20 Newcomb Blvd., New Orleans, La.

John and Jean (Fairbanks) Stead with baby daughter, Kim, Candy and son Craig.

A letter from Milford Davis tells us that in September he took over the job of editing THE HILL TOP NEWS, a weekly newspaper in Albuquerque, about which he writes: "It's a pretty fine job, three days a week of actual work and I'm my own boss." Last August Milford spent four weeks in California and tried to find a place to live, but it was no dice. While there, he contacted several old classmates including "Mary Lynn Rogers Greiner, (Mrs. R. E.) '34, I am happy to say she's as alluring as ever and has two dream replicas in miniature. . . . Also visited Jean Plumb Hodgkinson (Mrs. J. V.) '37, and her family who were wonderfully hospitable to us all. Spent an afternoon with George Porter who hasn't changed an iota, except for having grown up somewhat and become a real member of the screen colony."

After spending 31 months in the Army

Medical Corps as the Chaplain's assistant, Walter Kimble is now musical director at station WDBO in Orlando. Walter's home address is: 2015 DePauw St., Orlando, Fla.

Those here for Alumni Day also included: Sara Howden, Everett Roberts, Wanita Mutispaugh, and Olcott Deming.

Class of 1936

Secretary: Mrs. Paul Hadley (Helen Jackson), Elsah, Ill.

We are all saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Richard Hawkins (Ernestine Hills) early in December.

Law Mallard is directing the First Presbyterian Choir and teaching at the Orlando Memorial Jr., High School.

Betty Chapman Rollins writes from Three Rivers Farm, Dover, N. H., that she and Ed have been close to the farm ever since June in 1934. They have three children—Ashton II, 8; Edward, 6, and Georgianne Chapman, who was 3 in November.

Isabelle Stearns Gay and her husband, Karl, spent a year in Mexico before he entered service. She and their son, Peter Bishop, were at Ft. Leavenworth while Karl was an instructor for the Latin American classes. On his discharge in the fall of '46 they were looking forward to a job and a home in South America.

Congratulations to Dr. and Mrs. R. Brown, who became the proud parents of a little girl, Margaret Ann, on December 31, 1946.

Tony Merrill's new book, "The Rammed-Earth House," was announced in the N. Y. TIMES Book Review section on January 12th. Congratulations, Tony!

Ellen Cushman Kellogg's husband, Al, has been teaching at Yale since the fall of 1945 and the end of his service in the army. They and their three-year-old daughter, Marion, are enjoying life in West Haven, Conn.

Dante Bergonzi informs us that he is now with the promotion department of Parade Publication, Inc., at 405 Lexington Ave., in New York City. "It was fun being a musician," he says, "but I decided to go straight and get myself a job."

Sally Stearns has announced her engagement to Lt. Col. Robert Creswell Brown of the AAF. They will be married in Cairo, Egypt, next June. For the past three years Sally has served with the Red Cross in Africa, Sicily, Italy, and Germany. Our sincere wishes for your happiness, Sally!

Jean Astrup Faubel (Mrs. Eugene L.) writes that her five-year-old son, Gene, is now in kindergarten. Gene, Sr., is salesmanager of the Wellman Bronze & Aluminum Co. in Cleveland. They've moved from Louisville, Ky., to Amherst, now at 23809 Wolf Rd., Bay Village, O. Mass., but Jean hopes they are settled.

A St. Augustine newspaper informed us that Jean Parker was in charge of arrangements for the Foreign Press Association Banquet in N. Y. on Armistice Day. The affair was in honor of the delegation chiefs of the United Nations Assembly and Jean mentioned talking to Mr. Baruch, Ambassador Koo, former Secretary of State Byrnes among others. In her own words, "It was so incredible to find yourself face to face with the originals of all the news photos you'd seen! And they were so cordial."

On February 26th front page headlines shouted, 'SOC' CHAKALES BARRED FROM ALBANIA, over an AP dispatch from Greece. However, to quote from a High Point, N. C., editorial: "The ENTERPRISE is especially proud of its former managing editor, L. S. 'Soc' Chakales today. The Communists have just thrown him out of Albania. That can only mean they are afraid of him. It was about a year ago that Mr. Chakales, who is chief of the Associated Press bureau in Athens, achieved his great Albanian 'scoop' which soon had his name on the Communist black list. He had gone up to Albania to cover the so-called election—one of those affairs in which the opponents dare not vote lest they be shot. But 'Soc' was not content to report the elections alone. Through a bit of secret maneuvering which reminds one of something out of a novel, he managed to get into a meeting of a group of leaders of the anti-Communist underground. And he reported their side of the matter also—the only reporter to get the full story. (Incidentally, he got the story out of Albania by using the government radio, gambling that the Communists would not anticipate such 'brass' and that the station operators would not understand English—and won both bets.) That's the reason that the Communists . . . don't want Mr. Chakales back in Albania for the present election investigation. He knows too much. . . . After the Albanian incident . . . Mr. Chakales wrote . . . that he failed to see how any good American, no matter how 'liberal' or even 'radical' he might have been to start with, could have anything but contempt for the Communist party and its practices once he had seen them in central Europe. It's a pity that more of our parlor pinks—not that 'Soc' was ever that, despite his occasional sounding off—do not have the opportunity to see what Communism is, once it gains control."

Class of 1937

Secretary: Mrs. Nelson Marshall (Grace Terry), Univ. of N. C., Chapel Hill, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. James Boyd, II, of 111 Mohawk Drive in West Hartford, Conn., happily announced the arrival of a daughter, Juliana Seymour, on February 6, 1947. We'd like a picture of Juliana and her two-year-old brother, Brewster, for the RECORD!

John and Eleanor Roe ('39) Nichols just returned to their home in Asheville, N. C., after a visit to Miami, Fla. They wrote that they were sorry not to get by Rollins this trip. Eleanor spent the fall in California with her father.

A nice letter from Jane Pelton tells us: "I was married to Martin V. Wolf, II, on May 18, 1946. After months of hunting, we finally bought a little house in Ft. Wayne, Ind, and are now quite settled. I do want to issue an invitation to all the Rollins gang. Ft. Wayne is a crossroads and they surely must be in and around the city sometime."

Marcelle Hammond and Sally Hammond Trope are spending this winter in New York City. Sally is on a year's leave of absence from the faculty of the Rollins Conservatory and has an interesting job as assistant to the Treasurer of Americans United for World Government in the N. Y. office. Marcelle is studying voice and doing substitute work in churches around the city. One position was in the quartet with Johnny Powell, who is a baritone soloist at a large Brooklyn church. Sally and Marcelle have an apartment at 252 W. 70th St., and have seen many of the New York Rollins people like Dante Bergonzi, '36, Si Vario '38, Charlie Clawson, W. Royal '43, Dick Lee and his wife and baby. The girls were in Winter Park for a visit with their parents during February and March.

Our class was well represented on Alumni Day by Frannie Hyer Reynolds (Mrs. Bill), Marcelle Hammond and Louise MacPherson Deming (Mrs. Olcott).

Chick Prentice stopped by the Alumni House on February 28th just long enough to tell us he would be Director of Industrial Relations for the Kraft Food Corp. in Chicago after March 15th. He was formerly with the Bell Aircraft Corp. in Burlington, Vt., and has been in labor relations work for 10 years now.

Class of 1939

Secretary: Frances Daniel, Box 816, Orlando, Fla.

It was nice to get Christmas cards from some of you because I learned where some of you are now. Orville (Dusty) Fennell and wife sent one from New Rochelle, N. Y. Gloria and Don Cetrulo's came from Newark, while Sue (Pick) and Monty Wells' came from Evanston.

Our class was well represented at the Founders' Day luncheon in February. George Fuller was toastmaster. Bob Hayes and wife were there, of course, as were Augusta Yust Hume, Florence Swift Durrance, Margaret Rogers, and Yours Truly.

It was good to hear from Harriet (Hai) Begole Randall who lives in Marquette, Michigan. She thinks it is about time we knew of her and James' daughter, Marcia, who was born November 15, 1943—the first day of deer hunting season as any good middle-western hunter knows.

A more recent edition is Edward Jarratt Maughs born to Jarry (Smith) and Sidney Maughs in St. Louis on February 17, 1947.

Augusta Hume and boys, David and Nicky are visiting her parents in Winter Park. Warren came for a two-week vacation but was called back by I.B.M. in a few days to be the manager of their office in Lansing, Michigan.

Claire (Zumkeller) Poole and husband A. L. are in Atlanta temporarily, but are permanently located in St. Petersburg, Fla.

John W. Dennis is now living in Asheville, N. C., at 21 Woodfin Place. He is a salesman for the Scruggs Equipment Co., Greenville, S. C.

Ward and Rosalie Dean Atwood have been in Palm Beach for the past two months after spending a week-end in Skytop, Pa.

Wilma Heath Lauterback and Hank ('37) were the guests of Dean and Miss Enyart early in November and again when they returned for the Economic Conference at Rollins. Their 3 year old daughter, Kathe, came with them on their second trip when her daddy spoke at the Economic Conference.

Little 4 year old Candy Stead's big brown eyes widened when Jean Fairbanks Stead (Mrs. John W., Jr.) showed her the football mural in The Beanery she had painted while attending Rollins. The Steads toured the campus and saw many old friends early in March.

Class of 1940

Secretary: Mrs. C. Edwin Boswell, Jr. (Lois Terry), 3601 San Pedro, Tampa, Fla.

Bob Walker and Barbara Alice Tickell were married in Atlanta on January 19th. Bob has left flying and has gone back to banking in Miami.

Frank Walker (10928 N.W. 2nd Ave., Miami 38) has quit his aircraft engineering for farming because he likes outdoor work and wanted to work for himself. He has a tomato crop and is doing fine according to Brother Bob.

Nate Bedell was separated from the Marine Corps last November with the rank of Major. Spent most of the war as a fighter pilot. His squadron started out on Tarawa and wound up on Saipan, making some intermediate stops. Nate returned to law school at the University of Florida and since graduating in September, 1946, has been practicing law in Jacksonville with his father and older brother. He and Ginny were fortunate in getting an apartment overlooking the river and hope that some of the old Rollinsites will go by to see them. Their address is: 830 LaSalle St., Jacksonville, Fla.

Alice (Elliott) and Jule Shaw returned to Melbourne last summer and have built several double cabins just 2 blocks from the center of town—so be sure to put them on your tourist cabin list for overnight stops.

Margery (Chindahl) and George Greene and twin sons, David and Douglas, got to Maitland the latter part of January just in time for the "winter" weather. At the end of his 3 weeks' vacation time, George returned to his church at Saybrook, Conn., but Margery and the boys remained for another month's visit with her folks. You will be interested to learn that George started out to raise $475 for chimes in the Congregational Church tower in Saybrook in memory of the servicemen who lost their lives. At the close of the campaign, he had over $800, permitting a much better system of chimes. George plays them four times a week and Margery says they really sound nice.

Mimi Graves Sillars writes that she is a case worker with the Brooklyn Red Cross Chapter. Her husband, Rob, is studying for his Doctor of Education degree in Adult Education under Public Law 346 and is editing the "Adult Education Journal" and "Film Forum Review" as well. But she also writes that they have a place to live only as long as he continued to study at Teachers College of Columbia University.

At Christmastime, Dottie Bryn McMahon reported that they still have their apartment at 190 Hillside, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., but hope to build sometime this spring.

The Fellers—Dolly, Bob and Stevie—visited the campus in February and have reservations for "The Tides" at Redington Beach for a while before they leave for Tucson, Arizona, where the Cleveland Indians will hold their spring training.

News from Lolo Johnson Pick, from West Bend, Wisconsin, is that Bob has a new semi-pro basketball team all his own. According to Lolo, the whole thing is quite an undertaking—in fact, they are eating, sleeping and living basketball 24 hours a day, but enjoying it a whole lot.

Jack and Dot Hoy, and daughter, Jackie, have gone west. After sending Jackie through the Mayo Clinic, they decided that the best thing for Jackie's asthmatic condition was a change of climate. Jack gave up his job as production manager for the Dixie Lily Milling Company in Williston with a year's leave of absence. Reports from the Hoys, who are now in Flagstaff, Arizona, are that Jackie has improved a great deal and that it is amazing how she gets along so well in the zero weather.

Jimmy and Pat (Clark) Coates' twin daughters, Sandy and Penny, and baby Sally live at 3124 Marlin Ave., Tampa, Fla. Jimmy is research representative at the American Can Company.

The Alumni Office received a very interesting letter from Mary Marchman Stonerock (Mrs. R. F.) in January. Mary is busy as housewife and mother since giving up teaching at Memorial in 1945. And husband Bob is still with the public accountants, Pribble, Wells, Fly and Horan, serving out his 3-year term of the old-fashioned apprenticeship before taking the C.P.A. exam. The Stonerocks now have a new home of their own which they are enjoying very much. Their address is: 337 N. Ferncreek, Orlando, Fla.

We wish to extend our sympathy to Vicky Morgan whose father died in October. Vicky and her mother have moved to Clearwater Beach. They went to Washington, D. C., to spend Christmas with Jinny Morgan Mendenhall ('42) and Lt. Col. (USMC) husband. Jinny and husband live on a farm in Virginia with Raffles and Amigo (their dogs).

I have recently accepted a position as secretary with the Florida Division of the American Cancer Society here in Tampa and find the work rather interesting, especially since cancer is a disease which still baffles medical science.

Mickey McAuliffe Menger ('41) writes: "George Victor entered the National Amateur Golf Tournament in the fall. Did very well for himself. Visited New York and Atwoods ('39) recently."

John D. Hagenbuch is now a student at Stevens Institute of Technology in Hoboken, N. J. His mailing address is: 321 Mt. Prospect Ave., Newark 4, N. J.

Margery Chindahl Greene (Mrs. George) and Yours Truly attended the Alumni Luncheon and activities of the day.

Class of 1941

Secretary: Mrs. Joe Johnson (Nancy Locke), 1906 Harrison St., Orlando, Fla.

Peggy Willey Green has a 5 months old son named for her father, Julian. Edward, her first son, is now 4 years old.

Barbara Brock Daughtery and Bill are enjoying their life in Danville, Ky., where Bill is coaching at Centre College. Bill expects to complete his masters next summer.

Lois Weidner Gordon (Mrs. A. L.) with her 10 month old daughter, Suzanne.

I had a pleasant telephone call from Gracia Tuttle Corwin in February. She and Bower with daughter Linda are still living in Jacksonville.

Luverne Phillips Hinson (Mrs. M. W.) visited Mrs. Marelle Haley Thomas ('42) in Leesburg, Fla., for 5 days early this month. While on campus briefly she answered our question modestly that she was "supervising music still." But we were impressed to learn that she has been Supervisor of Music for the Torrington City Schools in Connecticut for the past 3 years!

John Langdon Harris is a distributor and salesman in Chagrin Falls, Ohio, and receives his mail at: R.F.D. No. 1, Box 93.

Last month's RECORD stated that Mickey McAuliffe was a housewife and mother, but in the rush her married name, Mrs. Carl S. Menger, was omitted. In January the Alumni Office received a lovely letter from Mickey giving additional information plus some news notes. She was married to Major Carl S. Menger, AAF, from San Antonio, Tex., in August, 1945, and John McAuliffe Menger was born April 20, 1946.

Willard R. Gatling, having finished his internship at St. Luke's two years ago, opened an office in Jacksonville this fall. He completed 22 months in surgery at Madigan General Hospital, Ft. Lewis, Wash. Good luck, Willard!

Everett L. Farnsworth, Jr., of Winter Garden, Fla., did the honors for our class on Alumni Day.

Class of 1942

Secretary: Elizabeth Knowlton, 611 N. E. 23rd St., Miami Fla.

We are grieved to learn that Marelle Haley Thomas' husband was killed in action while serving overseas with the AAF. She has been doing Welfare Work in Leesburg, Fla., for the last year and a half.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Pierce (Dottie Robinson) of Leachville, Ark., spent a couple of pleasant weeks this winter motoring through Florida all the way to Key West, at the tip of the peninsula. They stopped in at the Alumni House while visiting Betty (Phillips) Sloan on their way home.

Congratulations are in order for Jack and June (Reinhold '41) Myers, for John C. Myers III arrived on December 17.

An interesting note from Nancy Johnson Gest tells us about her recent marriage. She writes: "Met Don on Guam where he was in the Seabees and I was with the Red Cross. We were married December 7, 1946, and among our attendants were Isabel Flagg Tyson and her daughter, Carole Ann (aged 4) was flower girl. Alden and Rita Costello Manchester (both '43) came up from Washington. Don is with the Nylon Division of E. I. duPont de Nemour & Co." Mr. and Mrs. Donald A. Gest's new address is: 20 Saratoga Rd., E. Greenwich, R. I.

Boyd France covered the signing of the 5 satellite treaties on Feb. 10 for Reuters news agency. While the head of the Paris office was on vacation recently he was in complete charge and covering the National Assembly and debate on Foreign policy. Those of you who followed his capable newscasting of the Paris Peace Conference this fall will be interested in knowing that his new contract with Reuters stipulates that he shall give all of his time to them (no broadcasting). And neither party may break the agreement within 3 months. He will have been with Reuters 1 year this month.

Billy and Frances McDonald Middlebrooks have a son, Donald Marsh, born December 31!

Class of 1943

Secretary: Shirley Bowstead Evans, Belle Isle, Pine Castle, Fla.

Elsa Jensen has decided to further her art at the Cambridge School of Arts, Cambridge, Mass., after two years of overseas service in the State Department in Africa and Europe.

Marilee Twist Stratford's (Mrs. Wm. D.) home address is now: 4309 Dresden St., Chevy Chase View, Kensington, Maryland.

Mary Margaret Knighton (Mrs. L. A.) has a new address also which reads: 750 Ellicott State Road, Orchard Park, N. Y. Your secretary enjoyed being back on campus for Alumni Day.

Ed. Note: There were more boxers entered in Orlando's Dog Show this year than in the Madison Square Show, and your secretary's entries took a number of the prizes.

Class of 1944

Secretary: Marjorie P. Coffin, Pine Manor Jr. College, Wellesley 81, Mass.

Jean Hamaker Pumphrey writes that she is working at the University of Florida, where she is trying to keep track of housing facilities for married students—2 trailer camps, some 50 or so converted barracks, and eventually 472 pre-fab apartment units. Also, Jean wants to make a correction of a statement which appeared in the December RECORD. Her husband, Bill, is not studying law, but is studying Business Administration, "the better to seize the world by the tail."

Charlotte Smith is associated with David Andrews, Realtor, in Winter Park and has been selling real estate since last April.

John Bistline wrote that going back north after the Christmas holidays he had a wonderful time at a rather small reunion of Rollinsites held on the train with Ben Briggs ('45), Johnnie ('46) and Daphne Takach Powell ('42), Hallie-jeanne Chalker ('46) and Peggy Tomlinson ('45).

Hank and Holley Swann have bought a house in Chappaqua, N. Y., where they have opened a Fix-It Shop and fix almost anything. Their daughter, Suzanne, is now in kindergarten and loves it.

Betty Lanza is assistant in market research in the promotion department for Fortune Magazine in New York. Nice going, Betty! And to top off the wonderful position she is holding down, she is sharing an apartment with Rollinsites Sudie Bond and Sally Hazelet ('46).

From a tracer-card we learn that Mary Jane (Wilson) Fisher is living in a trailer while husband Donald attends the University of Missouri. We're looking forward to a wonderful picture of your son for the next ALUMNI RECORD. How 'bout it?

Sam and Jenelle Wilhite ('42) Pickard are residing in Charlottesville, Va., at 1915 Lewis Mountain Rd. Sam is a law student at the University of Virginia.

Thanks to Barbara Cheney, our class was not without representation on Alumni Day.

Class of 1945

Secretary: Grace Sebree, 111 E. 17th St., New York, N. Y.

Mrs. Robert Madden (Edith Yard) is busy caring for her new daughter, Edith Colby, born December 18. Her husband is in the dental corps in Germany and is expected home sometime this summer.

Lucky George Gross not only spent the Christmas holidays with his parents in Winter Park, but again escaped the ice and snow of Troy, N. Y., for another visit home between semesters January 29 to February 5. He is working on his B.S. degree at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Jane (Mosby) and Willard White of Topeka, Kansas, became the proud parents of a baby girl, Linda Sue, on December 28th.

There's a young man of whom we've just learned. He's Alfred III, son of Peggy Timberlake Taylor (Mrs. Alfred B., Jr.), who was born July 3, 1946. We'd love to have his picture to show you in the RECORD.

We recently learned that Mary Glatly has been Mrs. Walter Teating since August 29, 1946. Mary's husband is an Army Air Force instructor, and their present address is: Army Air Forces Special Staff School, Craig Field, Selma, Ala.

A tracer-card from Robert de la Rutledge's father informs us that Bob is still in the service, stationed on Okinawa. He is a 1st Lieutenant and flies B-29's. His address is: 22nd Bomber Group, 2nd Sqdn., A.P.O. No. 239, c/o P. M., San Francisco, Calif. We all know how much a word from home means while one's away, so why don't some of you classmates sit down with pen in hand and write a newsy letter to Bob!

Elliott Morris is studying at the University of Idaho and can be reached at: 32 Campus Drive, Pocatello, Idaho.

If you should be riding the Pan American Air Lines, don't be at all surprised if your stewardess should be a cute little blond by the name of Jane Northen. And, if you're interested in locating Jane on terra firma, try 2534 S.W. 12th St., Miami, Fla.

Here's another new address for the books. Jean Woodfill receives her mail at: Box 71, Lebanon, Missouri.

It was mighty nice to have Bob Hagener around campus in January and February. He drove down from St. Louis, went down to see his brother Hilbert ('40) in West Palm Beach and came back to Winter Park to take in Founders' Week.

A committee from N. Y. Botanical Garden was so enthusiastic after seeing 6 of Lee Adams' remarkable paintings of Central American fruits and flowers at Kennedy's, on Fifth Ave., that they invited him to send them additional pictures for an exhibit in the rotunda of their Museum Building. Lee has just recently returned to Mandarin, Fla., after spending some time in Honduras, C. A. And we anticipate his revisiting Rollins for the Florida Federated Circles for the Garden Club have booked him to lecture at their convention in Orlando on April 17th.

Class of 1946

Secretary: HalliJeanne Chalker, 2930 Macomb St., N.W., Washington, D. C.

Say, what's happened to all that news that came in so readily for awhile? I just know that we've all been just as busy as we were before: but what has everybody been doing? I can tell you about a few of us.

Marc and Arlene Gilmore and family have just moved to Toledo, Ohio, where Marc is an up-an-coming Standard Oil man. Sounds like a wonderful opportunity, Marc. Good luck to you.

Teddy Baird has transferred her activities from Vermont to Peekskill, New York, where she is teaching them how to ski, ice skate, play basketball, dance, and generally, improve their athletic prowess at St. Mary's School, her old prep school. She has had several Rollins reunions with Dan Dickinson who is also in Peekskill.

Shirley Winther and Gerry Griffin ('45) became engaged on February 1. The big event will take place in June. Congratulations, Shirley and Gerry! Sister B. J. (Winther) and Dick Johnston will walk down the aisle in April.

Peg Mandis is reviewing the sights of the nation's capital, preparatory to making the rounds of New York. She hopes to see the cherry blossoms return to Washington before she goes back to the sunny land.

Nonita Cuesta was one of the illustrious court in the grand festival of Gasparilla, Tampa's biggest social fete.

Betty Semmes is gathering lots of excitement working with Delta Airlines in Savannah. That girl will never again be grounded.

Barb Balsara Main is enhancing that already enchanting voice of hers by study with some very wonderful coaches in the Big City.

Meriel Milam is working with the Junior League in Jacksonville and planning an interesting trip abroad this summer with a Youth Hostel Rehabilitation group.

Bunny Sloan is fast becoming a crack secretary in the Washington Secretarial school. She and your secretary had a real Rollins pow-wow not long ago. That's good for your soul, you know.

Rollinsites in Washington were thrilled to hear of Prexy's appearance here, but were terribly disappointed not to be able to see him.

Mary Kramer is now living in St. Louis and finding investigation for the Social Security Commission very interesting.

Your secretary was delighted to get a phone call from Ed Johnson when he was passing through Jacksonville on his way to Orlando for New Year's. Ed is crazy about medical school in Tennessee and feels that his Rollins training was just what he needed.

Laura Molina Roel and her husband have been gracing the social life of Mexico City for some time now.

We know that Charlie and Nicki Rex are thrilled to be at Rollins again this year. Those music appreciation classes of Charlie's must be a great addition down there.

Your secretary has gone to work for the State Department in the Administrative Office of the Division of Foreign Service Personnel. She is most excited about the whole thing and about having shaken hands with departing Secretary Byrnes himself.

Tom Fruin has passed his examination to be licensed by the New York Stock Exchange as a Registered Representative. He started the new year with the well-known New York firm, Hornblower & Weeks, and will eventually become their representative in Holland. The best of luck, Tom!

Helen Cobb, who is teaching in St. Petersburg, was on campus just before Founders' Week.

Molly Rugg's new address is: 104 Arch St., Akron 4, Ohio.

Daphne Aspinwall Takach and John Benjamin Powell, Jr., were married in the Knowles Memorial Chapel on November 24. Congratulations!

Alice Ruth Austin was the only member of our class lucky enough to be on campus for Alumni Day.

Class of 1947

A prospective alumnus that we did not get to tell you about in the last RECORD is Frederick Loring Dixon Yard, Jr., who was born on the 13th of November. His daddy, Dick, is back completing work toward a degree from Rollins.

Congratulations also to Jane Booher Curry (Mrs. Russell) whose son, Mark Andrew, arrived on January 13 1947.

Betty Jane Perinier and Bill George were married in the Knowles Memorial Chapel on Friday, February 14. Betty and Bill are continuing their studies and will graduate in June. The best of luck to you both.

Just too late for the December RECORD came the news of Vera Kristine Miller's marriage to Gordon A. McCoy which took place on December 14 in New Brunswick, N. J. Our best wishes are extended to you, Kristine.

Mrs. Billy Taylor Napier (Katty Bet-terton) is a recent mother, whose pride and joy we'd like to see and know more about.

Mary Belle Randall will be at 320 Park Ave., Apt. 5B, New York City, until June 12, but she says she can always be reached at 505 Crescent Rd., Hamilton, Ohio.

Our cordial wishes for every happiness to Patricia Dee Quillin who married Capt. Charles Herbert Bruce, USA, in Forest Hills Garden, N. Y., on January 18.

Class of 1948

A letter from Francine Nikolas tells us that she has changed her name to Mrs. Charles Gardiner and her address to: 313 Wesley Ave., Oak Park, Illinois. Our very best wishes to you, Francine.

The marriage of Martha Lee McCormick to Charles H. C. VanPelt, Jr., took place on September 19 in St. Petersburg, Fla. Their present address is: Highland Lake Apartments, 605 E. Marks St., Orlando, Fla. Congratulations to you both!

Class of 1949

Our heartiest congratulations to Paul and Dottie Grannon, whose son and heir, John Aubrey, arrived on February 16, 1947!

Another happy couple to be congratulated are Bonnie and Gene Sturchio. Patricia Ellen, their little girl, arrived close on the heels of Santa Claus (December 26th).

Genie Fishel and Lt. Lawrence War-rick were married at the Winter Park Episcopal Chapel on March 14. Larry is on terminal leave after serving in the U. S. Marine Air Corps.
